

FIG Working Week 2011 : Time to register!

FIG Working Week 2011 will be held in Marrakech, Morocco 18-22 May 2011.

The overall theme of the Working Week is “Bridging the Gap between Cultures”. The theme addresses the changes in current world and the importance of cultures and their differences, including professional development, traditions and legislation.

The three plenary sessions will address key issues of the surveying profession including latest development in surveying technology, land administration, land tenure, geospatial information, town planning and sustainable cities.

This Working week will also be a good opportunity to meet FIG new President, Mr Teo CHEEHAI, as well as the incoming FIG Commissions chairs.

Online registration for this major event is now open:
