

CLGE Budapest Seminar 21 March 2013

14.00 Opening

<h3>Solemn signing of the CLGE Code of Conduct of the European Surveyor by the Hungarian partners of the CLGE umbrella in Hungary</h3>
--

The Umeå Declaration – a reminder

Jean-Yves Pirlot, CLGE President

The Budapest Seminar – Introduction

PhD Danko Markovinović, CLGE Vice President (moderator)

14.45 THE EUROPEAN BODIES

Galileo and EGNOS: Update status on deployment and support to their applications

Jean-Yves Roger, European Commission

Galileo and EGNOS – Applications in High Precision

Reinhard Blasi, European GNSS Agency

15.45 COFFEE BREAK

16.30 THE “USER SEGMENT”

GNSS experience in North Rhein-Westphalia and Germany

PhD Jens Riecken, Ministry of Interior of North-Rheine Westphalia

GNSS activity of SGO, the introduction of the Hungarian GNSS infrastructure

Péter Braunmüller, Msc. Domain Expert of FÖMI

New Frontiers in GNSS Positioning

Szabolcs Rózsa, Department of Geodesy and Surveying, Budapest University of Technology and Economics

The Role of Surveyors on Jobsites

Laszlo Szentpeteri, Regional Sales Manager Geomatics